(c) and (d) During the year 2000, projects under the scheme were evaluated allover the country through the Childline India Foundation, Mumbai. 18 projects were evaluated in Andhra Pradesh. 7 were found to be working satisfactory while another 4 were found to be requiring improvements in varying degrees. The remaining 7 were considered not fit for receiving further grants. The Ministry followed up the evaluation report by sending show cause notices to all the organization whose performance was unsatisfactory and necessary action has been taken to stop grant-in-aid and blacklist wherever necessary.

World Bank for Social Risk Management system in South Asia

1086. SHRI SURESH KALMADI:
SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI:

Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the suggestion made by the World Bank to introduce a Social Risk Management system in South Asian countries including India;

(b) if so, the views of Government on the subject; and

(c) the steps being proposed to be taken by Government to provide risk cover for victims from floods, earthquake, drought, crop failure like natural calamities particularly in rural areas, on a permanent basis?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI MANEKA GANDHI): (a) to (c) World Bank has prepared a report entitled "Social Protection Sector Strategy—From Safety Net to Spring Board'. It is a general report about risk management systems working in different parts of the world and changing risk management strategy over a period of time. Though the Report has some passing reference about India, it does not give any specific suggestions as regard risk management system in the country.

Dave Committee report on pension scheme

1087. SHRI GAYA SINGH: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Dave Committee set up to suggest a pension scheme for the unorganised sector has submitted its report; and

(b) if so, the recommendations made and Government's decision thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI MANEKA GANDHI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment had commissioned, in August, 1998 a Project OASIS (an acronym of Old Age Social and Income Security) to examine policy questions connected with old age income security in India and submit its recommendations to the Government. The Committee, headed by Dr. S.A. Dave, former Chairman of Unit Trust of India, submitted its final report to the Government on 11.1.2000. The Report contains recommendations on the schemes and actions that Government may take to ensure that every young worker builds up enough savings during his/her working life, which could serve as a shield against poverty during their old age. The recommendations contained in the report have a twin focus on further improving existing pension provisions and to devise a fresh pension plan for such workers who are not included in the present pension provisions but are capable of saving modest amounts and converting these savings into Old Age Income Security. The report is presently under consideration of the Government.
